CORAL SPRINGS ARTIST GUILD

Newsletter

Message from the President—Ezi Algazi

I would like to welcome all the new members to the Coral Springs Artist Guild. This year we had a record number of members new to the Guild. Others are returning members from years ago. Welcome to everyone!!

Congratulations to all who were accepted to the Coral Spring Museum of Art show inside the museum in celebration of our 40th anniversary. For those who entered the show and were rejected, we will try very hard to get another show inside the museum so we have another chance to show off our works of art. A word of advice: The museum staff required that all artwork be properly framed and wired before the intake. That alone and not the artwork was what resulted in some rejections.

I recommend everyone stop by the Museum and see our best collective work. Since it is inside the museum gallery, you will have to pay an entry fee if you are not a museum member. You will be very impressed and it will give you a good idea what they are looking for to exhibit inside the Museum. The Art will be there until December 28th (pick up day).

The Coral Springs Museum of Art is very interested in working closer with us and arranging special events for our members. Julia Andrews is working on setting up a special lecture from the Gamblin group and other big name art supply manufacturers. Often free samples are available at these lectures and demonstrations. More information and dates will be emailed and posted on our website www.coralspringsartistguild.org.

Our next board meeting will be held on Thursday, January 2nd at 7pm at the Coral Springs Museum of Art (2nd floor classroom). Our guest speaker, Gerald Saxon, will speak on "Natural Abstract", which is a new art form that required him to invent a piece of equipment to create it. What a creative way to start the New Year!

Next year our dues will go up to $45. But there is good news. Anyone joining or renewing early (between May 1st and June 30th) will receive a discounted rate of $40. This is an increase of only $4 from this year. July 1st, 2014 is the beginning of our next membership year.

I hope you had a Happy Hanukkah, wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and wishing you all a happy and healthy New Year.

THE CHATTERBOX

CSAG member, Rosaria Gia, will be exhibiting during the month of December at the Parkland Library.

CSAG member, Cris Cruz, had an article about her artwork in the October 2013 edition of The Parklander magazine.

Caran Art and Frame in Coral Springs at 5643 Coral Ridge Drive is an award-winning frame shop offering quality custom framing services. Caran has a section in their Gallery dedicated to artists from the Coral Springs Artist Guild. Every 2 months, our members will be displaying their work. There is no entry fee but there will be a small commission on sold pieces. Acceptance will be based on a first come, first served basis so hurry up and email Ezi Algazi at ezi@comcast.net for the next available gallery

MEMBERSHIP

At the November board meeting, it was decided that the membership fee will be increased to $45/year for 2014-2015. However, if a current member renews for 2014-2015 after May 1, 2014 and before July 1, 2014, the membership fee will be $40/year.

For current members, keep in mind that whenever you receive an exhibit prospectus, a membership application will be printed on it. It does not mean you need to renew your membership each time you enter a show. The board voted to not refund duplicate payments. Instead the money goes toward our Scholar Award fund. Please keep track of your payments. If you have any questions, contact the membership chairperson, Janet Little, at 954-605-1197 or by email at jml2139@earthlink.net.
