Message from the President—Laurianne Macdonald

I would like to thank the Coral Springs Artist Guild members, volunteers and the board as it has been my privilege to serve as your President. When I am asked why I volunteer so much time to the Arts here is what I say: creative expression only becomes art when it is shared, so helping artists show and share their work is an honor. The people I've met and worked with over the last 5 years are now friends and the things I've learned helped me grow as an artist and professional. The Coral Springs Artist Guild and its artists are an important part of my life and will continue to be.

I am pleased to say that I have every confidence in Ezi Algazi, your new President. He brings enthusiasm, many great ideas and talents. I will still be around as an advisor for him, the Scholar Award chair and the Coral Springs Festival of the Arts liaison. We will be holding the General Assembly meeting on June 7th in the balcony conference area at the Coral Springs Museum of Art balcony level. Besides the installation and meet-and-greet new board members, there will be a presentation on using Photoshop and Powerpoint programs to create an electronic portfolio of your artwork. I urge you not to miss this informative presentation.

As usual, summer will be pretty slow and lazy for the CSAG, but keep an eye out for a prospectus in August. We are working on a new venue to fill the void created by the closing of the American Orchid Society in Delray Beach.

This will be my last President's message, so again, I'd like to say thank you. It has been a pleasure. Good luck in all your artistic endeavors.

Message from the Vice President—Bob Grauer

I would like to thank everyone who participated in the Pen, Paint and Pixel exhibit. Congratulations to all our award winners! It amazes me how many extraordinary artists our little local guild has. It was good to see everyone at the artist's reception. Special thanks to everyone that provided food and wine for the reception, and the volunteers who helped hang the show.

I have just received news that we have been given a time slot for our newest exhibit location Sugar Sand Park Community Center in Boca Raton. I wish the date was earlier but we are confirmed for May 2013. This is a busy location and many people will be seeing the exhibit.

It may also result in a few sales for our artists. This will be a member's only exhibit. There should be space for all our members to show one piece. A second piece will most likely need to be juried in. It all depends on how good a response we get from our members. This location will only be available to us once every 2 years.

CSAG Calendar of Events

What: Final board meeting of 2011-2012
Where: Laurianne Macdonald's house
 11944 NW 30th Ct., Coral Springs
When: Monday, June 4th, 7pm

What: General Membership Meeting & Installation of New Board
Where: Coral Springs Museum of Art
When: June 7th, 6:30-8pm

Outgoing CSAG President, Laurianne Macdonald will present a workshop on how to develop an electronic portfolio of your artwork for presentation to galleries and exhibits. In this new age of technology, no longer will slides and photos be required. Learn how and what you need to become a marketable artist in the future.

Message from 2012-2013 CSAG President-Elect Ezi Algazi

On behalf of the members of the Coral Springs Artist Guild I would like to thank Laurianne Macdonald. For the last five years, she has been President of the Coral Springs Artist Guild which makes her the longest serving president in the history of this 39 year-old organization. She has sacrificed and devoted her time to the Guild and brought us to a new level of excellence. I would also like to thank her for staying on the board as the Scholarship Chair, Coral Springs Festival of the Arts liaison and especially for helping me to get started and pointing me in the right direction.

I would also like to thank all the members that have served on the CSAG board, the returning board members and the new board members. I am looking forward to serving the Coral Springs Artist Guild on its upcoming 40th anniversary from 1973-2013. Let's make it a special and exciting year.

Members who are already paid for the 2012-2013 year:

Vivian Hernandez Jamie Morhaim Maria Cristina Munoz

Please remember that the CSAG board voted at the end of 2011 that duplicate membership payments will no longer be refunded. Instead the $36 will be considered a donation to our Scholar Award fund. Duplicate payments were an administrative nightmare for the membership chairperson and the treasurer. Often these duplicate payments were included on one check with a prospectus entry fee. If you have any questions about whether your membership is valid, please contact the Membership Chairperson, Janet Little. Renewed memberships run from July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013.

Thanks to Terry Molina and Isabel Perez who are slated to begin their new CSAG board duties in the upcoming year but stepped in and performed them at the Spring Exhibit, Pen, Paint & Pixel. The programs were beautiful and the food was scrumptious. We really appreciate your dress rehearsal!!

There are still plenty of CSAG jobs available during the year. Contact new President, Ezi Algazi at 954-775-0313 or eziamy@comcast.net, if you want to help once a year, once an exhibit or once in a while.
