Message from the President—Laurianne Macdonald

Sunday, November 7th, we will be at the Sylvan Academy on the corner of University and Royal Palm, helping to sponsor the Tri-County Humane Society charity event for the Sylvan family. If you would like to donate any work for the auction or assist by manning the table for a couple of hours, your generosity and time would be greatly appreciated.

I was hoping at least some of our Coral Springs Artists would enter the Coral Springs Festival of Arts Signature Artist competition. It is a great opportunity and you could win not only a $500.00 dollar stipend, but a free booth and public recognition for the work as well as placement in the virtual gallery on the Coral Springs

Festival of Arts website, www.csfoa.com. The 2011 winner has been chosen but it has been decided that submissions for the 2012 competition will be accepted all year long. Entry forms can be downloaded from our website, [www.coral Springsartistguild.org](http://www.coral Springsartistguild.org). Click on the Coral Springs Festival icon for more information.

This year's festival is scheduled for March 19 & 20th. I do hope you all plan to take advantage of the CSAG sponsored tent. It's a great chance to display your work for thousands of visitors. More information will come in January. We will also be scheduling our spring exhibit at the Coral Springs Museum and our annual May exhibit at the American Orchid Society in Delray Beach shortly. Look for prospectus early in the new year.

I would like to personally say thank you to all our dedicated volunteers who we've come to count on over the years. Without Lester Wolfe, Stan Slutsky, Robert Grauer, Loretta Herman, Robert and Eleanor Richter, Janet Little, and Alfred Rosenfeld, the guild would not be able to exist. Unfortunately, these faithful members are growing weary and I would very much like to see some of our other members step forward to take over. It is generally only a few hours a month but the rewards are innumerable. Please consider volunteering for your guild, before you lose it.

Message from the Vice President—Loretta Herman

We kicked off the season with our first juried show, "The Harvest of Colors". I thank all the talented artists who participated in this show and made it the best ever!

As you know, the continued success of the Guild depends on your participation and interest in our upcoming shows. This season we will not be having library shows, thus giving us additional time to work on some new paintings.

Once again, we will have a juried show at the Coral Springs Museum of Art Lobby Gallery in the Spring as well as The American Orchid Society show. Dates will be posted at a later time.

Also several of our members took part in the The Coral Springs Festival of the Arts last year. They found it very rewarding. I hope more of our members will plan to participate this year as well.

I would like to thank those who helped during "take-in" and "hang-the-show", Stan Slutsky, Laurianne Macdonald, Al Rosenfeld, Lester Wolfe, Robert Grauer and Ray Herman. Thank you all for making this show a beautiful one! Congratulations to all our award winners. Their names and photos of their winning artwork is on Page 3 of this newsletter. Well done!!

Art Auction for the Animals

The Sylvan Learning Center located at 2246 N. University Drive (on the SW corner of University and Royal Palm) is hosting "Art Auction for the Animals". The date of this event is Sunday, November 7th from noon to 5pm. All proceeds (100%) from the auction will go to the Tri-County Humane Society, a no kill shelter located on Boca Rio Rd.

Sylvan is requesting donations of art from local artists and residents that have an animal (including bird, reptile or fish) theme. The artwork can be photographs or paintings, framed or unframed. There will be a silent auction as well as a live auction. The donations need to be dropped off at Sylvan by Monday, November 1st during the hours of 7pm-10:30pm. At that time, the artist can make arrangements to pick up any unsold works after the auction or agree to have the work hung for sale in the lobby at Tri-County Humane Society as a donation. Tax deductible receipts will be available following the auction and can be picked up or mailed to the artist. If you have any questions, please contact Barbara Cooper or Katie Wolfe (daughter of our treasurer, Lester Wolfe) at 954-575-7410.

Coral Springs Museum of Art

Fall Exhibit Sept. 23-Dec. 11

CHALK IT UP FOR ART!!

Get out your 2011 calendars and mark Saturday, March 12th for Chalk It Up For Art!! at the Museum. This fun-filled event will feature sidewalk chalk art for artists of all ages with a judge, prizes and chalk-olate snacks.

CSAG will man a table at the Art Auction for the Animals on Sunday, November 7th from noon to 5pm. If you are willing to volunteer to man the table for 1-2 hours, please contact Laurianne Macdonald at 954-255-8326. The table will have membership applications and information about our Guild. This is a small amount of time to volunteer to support CSAG. We look forward to seeing some new faces help us out.

THE CHATTERBOX

Nothing new about our members was reported to the Newsletter Editor for this month's copy.

Is 2011 the end of The Coral Springs Artist Guild?

During the past several years I, Eleanor Richter, have been acting as advisor to the Board of Directors based upon my 37 years as a member of the Guild. During this time I have held almost every office including President, Newsletter Editor, Membership Chair, Exhibit Chair and have mentored several Presidents. My husband, Bob, and I have seen the Guild grow and decline a number of times, and with the help of some wonderful volunteers have been able to resurrect the Guild each time. The Coral Springs Artist Guild has been a big part of our lives.

It is with great sadness that I feel that I must recommend that the Board of Directors may need to close the books and disband the Guild at the end of 2011. An organization such as ours cannot operate without leadership and volunteers.

Laurianne Macdonald graciously volunteered as President again for the 4th year even though she sorely wanted to spend more time with her family and is now enrolled in college to pursue a degree. Long time member, Loretta Herman, who has also held many offices over the years, volunteered as Vice President when no one else stepped forward to hold the position. Janet Little who has worn many hats including President has continued in dual roles as Newsletter Editor and Membership Chair. Ever faithful, Lester Wolfe, has volunteered as Treasurer for so many continuous years that we have lost count. This year Joan Hinden is Recording Secretary, Stan Slutsky is Publicity Chair and Candy Childrey, who was Vice President for 2 years, is acting as Board Advisor. This bare bones group of volunteers is continuing to operate the business of the Guild for the current year. However, without some new volunteers I can't see the same people holding office and doing the guild's work year after year after year.

Only a handful of the usual volunteers worked at the intake of our beautiful Harvest of Colors exhibit at the Lobby Gallery in the Coral Springs Museum of Art. Of course, if the Guild is forced to disband there will be no more exhibits sponsored by CSAG at the museum or any other venue. Monthly meetings were discontinued 3 years ago due to lack of participation and even our once a year general membership meeting to induct the new board members has been attended by the same 5-10 people. It will be difficult indeed to see an organization that has nurtured so many artistic talents over the years disband for lack of volunteerism.
